BENEVOIANCE ABOMINATION

Mrs. Murray had a shocking experience which horrified the whole student body and paralyzed the school system. The provoking blunder came at the start with a few thought-gripping announcements, which had every student on the edge of his seat, when Mrs. Murray started interrupted their concentrated thoughts.
Mr. Rose, realizing, but not daring to think that realizing, when Mrs. Murray ing seat, clawed at his neck as if kind dent for air, and collapsed. When the gasped in body realized the truth, they react-screamed into blank space. The weaker ones dead faint, and Mr. Gray had recovered into stared into insanity. The stronger ones continued with the program. The bea-

SENIORS CHOOSE TOP-RATERS OF YEAR

Every day finds studious Dorothy buzzing around from class to class much too busy for the boys, but time will tell.

XXX

John, our blue-eyed, blushing boy of '47, is overcoming his shyness by dating cute June Huggett.

XXX

Speed demon Gordo played hide and seek with the cops. His hobby was collecting old junk heaps (cars!).

XXX

Fun-loving Al was a loyal game-follower in his '41 Chevie. Really deserved the vote as the wittiest boy of the class.

XXX

Popular Crash stuck with his one and only, in spite of luscious lovelies walking the halls. Bill Walbeck knows his gals.

XXX

Bob Buckenberger's stormy romances have been continuing. He likes girls with spirit, even if he has to go far afield to find them.

XXX

John, our American Beau Brummel, keeps his distance from the opposite sex, although it's hard for the latter to cooperate.

XXX

Bride-to-be Emmy Trupiano, earned her title of best dancer on the hardwood at many school dances. Friend Boyer was an inspiration.

Blushing Alice Jean glided down the corridors, looking neither to right nor left. She's cuter than she knows.

XXX

Denny's interest was centered on science, not on romance; but was any boy ever truly a woman-hater?

XXX

Cute Sue rated a sparkling spot with the seniors; and when we went to press, a pre-wedding sparkler was in the offing.

Bill Grace headed Lorna's list of heart interests. Popular Olmstead made a hit with both fellows and gals. Bill still carries the ball for the feminine league.

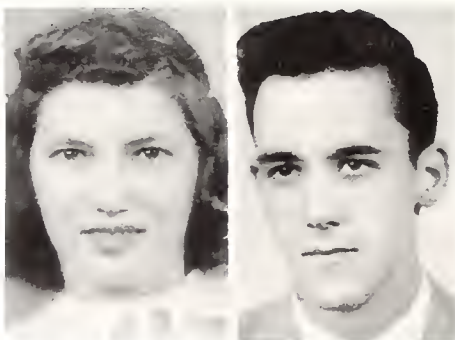

XXX

Jim Hamilton wasn't elected "most likely to succeed" on the strength of his love-life. Or maybe it's because he has been so successful in eluding the girls.

XXX

Glamorous Marcia Mead, with the figure unique, spent all her spare time with best-looking man--of--the--year, Blaine Katz.

ALDRICH, JAMES ROBERT

Jim learned a declamation as a Freshman, managed football fellows his senior year and sprinted in track. Sweet-smilin' Jim went to the party in the junior play. Vaughn Monroe's Racing With the Moon tops his hit parade. Blaine Katz and Jim Levey are Jim's best pals. He can't stand seeing girls wear slacks. Just might enter college.

Joyce Allen

ALLEN, JOYCE R.

Golden-haired Joyce represented Marshall with a dramatic reading her junior year; portrayed Prudence, the siren, in the junior play. Jeff belonged to Historical Society 3 years. Joyce was a top-notch reporter for the DIAL. She loves horses, especially her own Lady Bess. She pals with her sister Norma, and Margaret Aldrich. Greer Garson is her ideal.

ANDERSON, ELSIE LAURA

Serene Elsie's most ardent interest is music; Choir tops her list. She did expert make-up for the senior play. Dancing to Wayne King's You Keep Coming Back Like a Song, and Edgar Allen Poe's horror stories fill Elsie's spare time. She's not domestically inclined. Elsie enjoyed a trip to the Field Museum. Elsie will answer: "Op-er-a-tor".

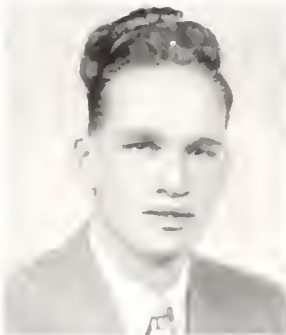

ANDERSON, MARY E.

Micky hails from Homer where she sang in choir and tooted a horn in hand for three years, continuing here. Sport loving Mary pals with Doris Hardwick and hates a group of gossiping girls. Vaughn Monroe's music makes dancing her favorite pastime. Mary has plans for college. Mike was thrilled by spectacular Niagara Falls.

ARMBRUST, HELEN MAY

G. A. A. point-pursuer 4 years. Historical Society member 2 years. Lively Helen was a senior play extra. Helen's fountain work at Peck's becomes her pastime with Alce Van Elst and Janice Tenney. She likes dancing to Vaughn Monroe's rendition of It's Been A Long, Long Time. Enthusiastic Helen hopes to attend Chicago Art Institute.

ARNOLD, EDWARD L.

Ed belonged to the Historical Society 3 years, was Uncle Sam in the senior play. He was in F. F. A. 2 years, playing basketball both years. Towering Ed hates English, would rather go boating anyway. King and Drum are his pals. Blue-eyed Ed likes Bing Crosby and Blue Skies. Fruit farming is his idea of the perfect career.

BAIRD, JEAN MARIE

Music is Jeannie's pastime. She belonged to the string ensemble 2 years. Dancing is her talent, when Harry James is leading the band. Bing Crosby movies vie with Star Dust for her favor. She and Julia Volstromer hang out at Easterday's or Walgreen's in B. C. Her liking for cheese sandwiches is an obsession. Jean plans being a beautician.

BAKER, MARY JEAN

Business-like Mary palled with Anita Clute for G. A. A. points 4 years. Historical Society held her interest 3 years. Mary collects perfume bottles, but spends her spare time reading hooks by Grace Livingston Hill. Her favorite subject was English, and Star Dust is an enchanting melody. Mary is employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

BEADLE, BARBARA JEAN

Bugs' most prized possession is her scrap book, and it takes up most of her time when she isn't playing her phonograph or taking care of her only known weakness, her little niece Judy. Barbara is Schuler's official candid-camera-woman; she's skillful with those shutters. Fluffy-haired Bugs hates living at Stuart Lake.

Real buck to a tipping "friend" Daddy.

BERNER, PATRICIA ANN

Historical Society, G. A. A., and Latin Clubs complete her membership list. She played the drum in band 3 years, was secretary-treasurer senior year. She did make-up for the junior play cast. Pat's never on time, but always remembers her prized address book. She pals with Janice Tenney and Gail Bartlett, Texas, here comes Pat after June 1.

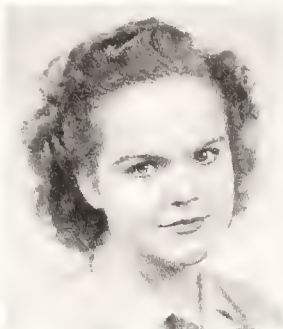

BISHOP, THELMA MAY

Shortie twittered in Choir her senior year. Thelma sews quite a fine seam, so naturally favors home living. Dancing and tobogganing head her list for elect pastimes. She pals with Joyce Plunkett, Helen Seedorf, and Louise Ranger. Brown-eyed Thelma prizes her wrist-watch, but hates it when it says "time to get up, Thelma May".

BLANCHARD, SUE

Little brown-eyed Sue spent 4 years in G. A. A. Upon graduating, she plans college. Sue says her weakness is staying out late. Her treasure is a Christmas bracelet from Junior. Sue's best pal is Ellen Clark; her favorite pastimes, eating, and dancing to Sentimental Reasons. Hal McIntyre's music and Peter Lawford's charms are tops.

BLACK, DOROTHY

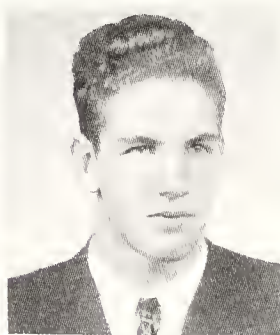

Dorothy simply wasn't a joiner. She plans to follow the pattern of her ideal, Mr. Cunningham, and be a history teacher to carry through with her hobby. Gretchen realizes her weakness is growing cross or sarcastic. Philadelphia was one goal reached from a desire to travel and to meet new people. She works at the County Infirmary.

BONNELL, GEORGE

Obtained his diploma via U. S. Government exams.

Marian Sart

BOEHMER, HUGH PETER

F. F. A. interested mighty Hugh most in high school. He was their junior watchdog and senior president; helped win all those F. F. A. basketball games. Track events took spare time 2 years along with Historical Society. Pete prizes his class ring and avoids black cats. He likes Doing What Comes Naturally with Dwight Joshick and Milton Jenks.

BORT, MARIAN E.

Marian of the gentle manner was in G. A. A. 2 years, Spanish Club 2, Historical Society 3. She helped stage the junior play, acted in the senior play, was art editor of this Annual. Marian sketches for a hobby; couldn't stand bookkeeping. Carleen and Quickie hang out with her at Peck's. She hopes to be a commercial artist.

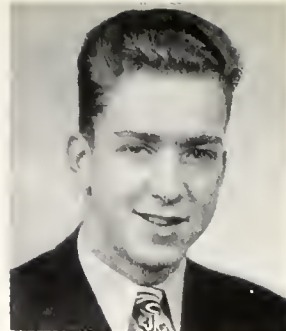

BORDEN, DONNA MARIE

Delightful Donna was the perfect Secretary-Treasurer of the senior class. She aided choir 2 years, Latin Club 1, Student Council 1, and did make-up for the senior play. Blue-eyed Donna's hobby is music; she plays the piano. She plans college, and a Sister Kenny career. Madonna-like Donna's most prized possession is her class ring.

BUCKENBERGER, ROBERT WAYNE

Tall, relaxed Buck played basketball and football 2 years. He won 440 yard run, relay, and broad jump. He slaved on stage crew for Growing Pains; did a romantic lead in Little Clown. Plans to be a lawyer, and later make F. B. I. Buck's best talent is his good "line". Most embarrassing moment: Liz's slapping his face in the hall.

BUTTRICK, BEN G.

Benjamin, the bantering boy, went out for track his junior year, played football 4 years; was basketball manager his senior year. He built props for the junior play; acquired a part in the senior play. His pals, Herb Wilson and Buck, know his weakness, women. He graced the Historical Society 3 years. Ben's always "busy" at Peck's.

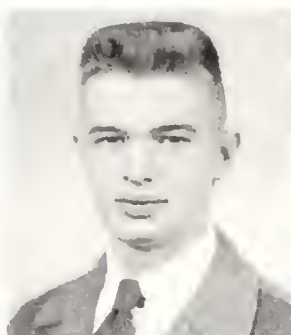

CAMP, WILLIAM FRANCIS

Busy Bill was secretary-treasurer of the Freshman class, violin, cello, and bass viol gave him 3 years in string ensemble, 2 in orchestra, and a spot in Rudy's band. Latin Club 2 years; Historical Society 3; debate 1. Bill was editor of this Annual; played vivacious Roddy in the senior play. Chemical engineering will be Bill's college major.

CATO, MARK KEITH

Athletic Mark played basketball and football 3 years. He followed his hobby, baseball, 4 years. Latin Club 1, and Student Council were activities of his sophomore year. Jap works at Hayes' Machine Shop, and prizes a Model "A" Ford. Future plans embody a best talent and favorite pastime—sleeping. Alan Ladd movies are a "must".

CAYER, ALBERT M.

Popular Al, master of the drums, was president of his junior class, played in Rudy's band, and in H. S. band 4 years (vice president, senior); joined Latin Club Historical Society. Extra in junior play; unlucky Pete in the senior one. Al hunts deer and dears. Jane Hill is his prize "catch". Al is one of Peck's crew.

CLUTE, ANITA

String ensemble 3 years, orchestra 3, Latin Club 2 (2 years president), Usher Club 2, G. A. A. 4, Historical Society 3; make up the activities of 4 busy years for fair-skinned, calm Anita. She was assistant director of the senior play, and on stage crew for the junior play. Mary Jean Baker and Eleanor Lewis are always near her.

COLE, GLORIA JOYCE

Brown-haired, green-eyed, Glick "number pleases" for the Bell Telephone Co. She joined Biology and Spanish Clubs and Historical Society. She enjoys gossiping, flirting, and giggling. Gloria's hobbies are square dancing and collecting enough sleep. She loves chop suey, Star Dust, and Glenn Miller's band with Tex Beneke. Her favorite author, Lloyd Douglas (Mother Goose, too).

COLLER, RICHARD DUANE

Choir is long and rangy Dick's hobby and favorite subject. He sang in the choir 2 years. Wayne King is his favorite band leader, and The Blue Danube Waltz his favorite song. He prizes his piano and plays during his spare time, by ear. Dick played the high school principal in the junior play. He reads Poe during leisure time on the farm.

Dick

COLLINS, ELIZABETH GAIL

Lissom Liz was an able office holder in many clubs; Latin Club 2 years. President of Spanish Club II, Student Council secretary-treasurer as a Freshman. G. A. A. president senior year, secretary-treasurer of Historical Society 3 years, and Usher Club. She played vivacious Terry in the junior play, helped direct the senior play, and really slaved on the DIAL.

COOK, DAVID R.

David's shop talent authorized his being shop assistant 3 years. His cornet enlarged the band by one for 2 years; he took part in Biology Club when a freshman. He prizes his rifle, because of his hunting (especially in Northern Michigan), and fishing interest. Farming or agricultural engineering are his plans for the future.

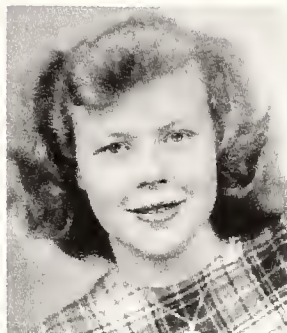

CORTRIGHT, LEROY

G. I. activities—Uncle Sam's service.

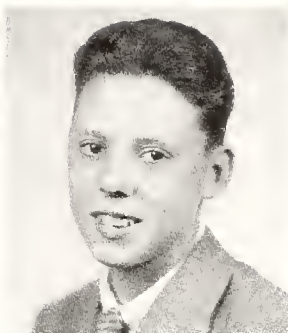

DENBROCK, WILLIAM B.

Speed played a smooth sax with Rudy's gang, and in M.H.S. band 4 years; joined Latin Clubs 2 years; Spanish Club 2; debate 2; was a naive professor in the junior play; and DIAL business manager. Bill enjoys dates with Shirley; maybe because before dates he uses his prized electric razor. Has one superstition—that falling from a 17-story window is fatal.

DERHAMMER, DOLAS JEAN

Blond and rosy-cheeked Dode joined the Historical Society, G. A. A., Biology Club, and Latin Clubs. Her hobby is twirling, and she worked with the band 4 years. Tommy Dorsey's Star Dust makes those dates with John Tadmán even more memorable. She hangs out at Peck's with Emily Trupiano and Connie Dunham. She prizes John's engagement ring.

DRUM, WILLIAM LEROY

Stocky Bill played a snappy extra in the junior play. He works on the home acres; plans include a short course at M.S.C., then farming. He treasures his movie camera and projector. Date pudding is his big weakness. Bill's skill is on display in 213—a miniature theatre. When he isn't with Ed Arnold or Orlo Gard; reads Westerns.

DRUMM, DOUGLAS ALLAN

Busy Corky sang in the choir; was secretary of the Biology Club when a Freshman; joined the Historical Society 3 years; and did make-up for the senior play. Douglas was school service chairman of the Student Council both junior and senior years. He dances to Xavier Cugat's tunes. Gangway for Drumm, Michigan State!

Best of luck in everything

EASH, SHIRLEY D.

Shirley, Denbrock's favorite model, rode horse-back to build up G. A. A. points for 4 years. She warbled with the choir 2 years. Dancing her time away to the tune of Good Night Sweetheart thrills her. Doris Van Wylen and Nancy Rickabaugh form the two other corners of her friendship triangle. Blonde Shirley works for Michigan Bell.

DULA, SHIRLIE

Never-still Shirlie came to our fair city from Battle Creek; joined Latin Club II as a junior. Dula pals with Gloria Convis and Connie Dunham; plans nurse's training after high school. Taffy-haired Shirlie says she talks too much, and loves to flirt. History and government are favorites; spelling's a pain. The Warsaw Concerto holds top music spot.

DUCKHAM, BARBARA JEAN

Quiet, brown-eyed Barb was a songstress in choir 1 year; gave her interest to Biology Club 1. Virginia Groth, Mary Harrington, and Donna Lake are pals of this lassie, who collects poems and newspaper clippings. An ideal situation for Barb: wearing her bracelet from Junior, eating chili, listening to Guy Lombardo, and doing shorthand.

EMBRY, RALPH C.

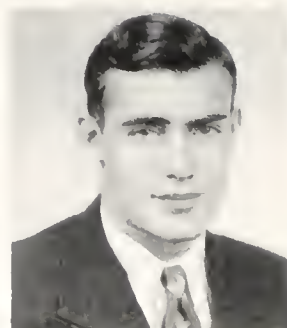

Ralph is an ex-G. I. with a family, who did not get his diploma from the government exam, but earned it from M. H. S. He prizes most his discharge from the U. S. Navy. Ralph collects guide books to famous cities he's visited; Heidelberg, Germany, in particular. He likes history and books by Bret Hart. He plans college.

Barbara

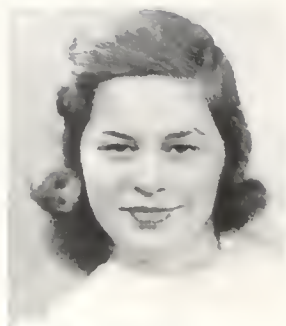

ENGLISH,
GEORGE ARTHUR

Football took up big George's spare time 3 years. He won a shot-put when a junior; joined the Biology Club (sophomore). George likes to eat, but not quite so much as to hunt. Brown-eyed "Casanova" blushed when a girl broke his suspenders right in school. He prizes his letter sweater; plans to go to California.

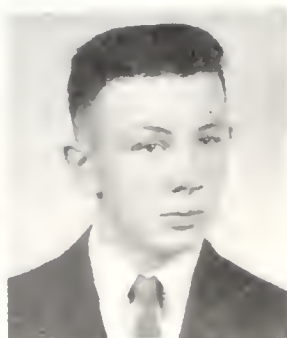

ESTELLE, RAY

G. I. activities—Uncle Sam's service.

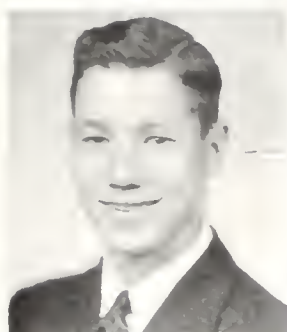

FLYNN, MARTHA ANN

Pep was vice-president of the Freshman class; Soph. G. A. A. secretary; Student Council, secretary-treasurer (Soph.), and vice-president (Sr.); songstress in choir, cheerleader, usher, and portrayer of vivacious Pat in the senior play. Music is her hobby; she can't resist Always. Alluring Martha works at Hitchens' Drug; plans beauty school, then marriage.

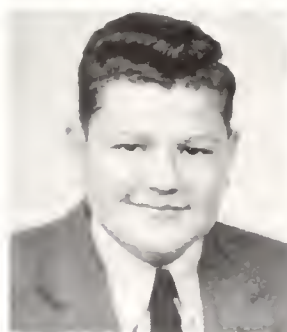

GALLAGHER, JOHN

John was a member of: the track team, F. F. A., Historical Society, DIAL Staff, and senior play stage crew. John enjoys hunting and playing any sport. He spends leisure time reading sports stories by John R. Tunis. John's face was never more crimson than when "immezut" he walked into the wrong classroom. He plans work.

GARD ORLO ELDEE

Mathematical Orlo's favorite subject is shop; he took it 2 years; was shop assistant 2 years. Drafting is Orlo's future vocation. Skiing, hunting, and fishing furnish him delight. Bill Drum and Orlo were a steady 2 some at "friend-shipping"; made the Globe Theater together. For romance, brown-eyed Orlo reads Zane Gray and courts Ginny.

GAUSS, ROBERT P.

Plump Gordo trumpeted in band, orchestra, and with Rudy's gang. Brown-eyed Bob, with the Charlie Spivak goal, was a 2-year Spanish Club and Historical Society member, once a cheerleader, and a junior play actor. The Dept. of Public Safety wishes Gordo (with a flying hobby) would drive his beloved Ford instead of fly it.

GORDNIER, MABEL MAE

"Tall gal" Mahel joined Biology Club and Historical Society. Talking in class is her worst weakness, unless Tommy Wood is considered. It Had To Be You and Harry James make her favorite dance music. She turns from black cats and "stuck-up" people. Tucky prizes a picture of Tommy. Working and business college are her future plans.

GRABLE, WALTER E.

Brown-eyed Curly played football as a Freshman and a Sophomore. He joined the Historical Society 1 year. Clyde Reed and Bill Patterson are his favorite friends. Walt enjoys reading Zane Gray books. His favorite subject was math. Steak is his favorite food. As for the future, Walt is now retired and not worrying, not even about Doris.

GRACE, WILLIAM BLAKE

Serious-faced Pudd played stellar football 4 years, was co-captain of All-T. V. in 1946; basketball 3; won the T. V. pole vault and shot put in track. Bill presided over Student Council his Sophomore year. He pals with J. D. Schneider, Bob Hendricks, and Bob Morris. He works at Schneider's Restaurant; doesn't like girls who smoke.

GREEN, CLARENCE WILLIAM

Junior's most prized possession is his Springer Spaniel. His pet peeve is poor marks. Bob Carlish is his best pal and they hang out at Grand Recreation or at home. Skating and fishing are favorite pastimes. He likes to see Abbot and Costello on the screen. Gym was a drawing card, but English wasn't fun to active Clarence.

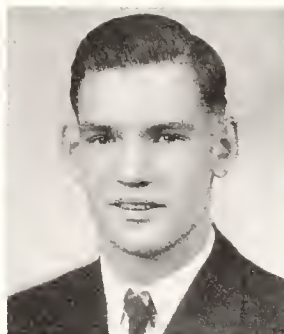

GROTH, VIRGINIA R.

Brown-eyed Ginny served as Scriba her second year of Latin; and believe it or not, she likes Latin best. She says her weakness is handsome blondes; and her trophy, Wendell's class ring. Nursing is Ginny's goal. She pals with Barbara Duckham, when she isn't skating, swimming, or reading. The Old Lamp Lighter is her favorite song.

HAMAKER, LAVERNE W.

Brown-eyed Verne served as Scriba to Latin Club II, and plans college. He and Jim Warner and Bill Burgdorf seek good time together. He doesn't trust women, but his favorite pastime is necking. He can't resist giving with the jive to Harry James' Prisoner of Love. Algebra class was fine; he reads O. Henry or dawdles at Hitchens.

HAMILTON, JAMES T.

Rugged Jim was the honored president of the senior class. He had football 1, 2, 3 and 4; All-T.V. 1946. Blue-eyed Jim was Uncle Shad in the senior play, and a faithful writer on the DIAL. He served on Student Council, when a senior. Sports and woodcraft take up honest Jim's spare time; college plans fill his future.

HARRINGTON, MARY LOU

Mary Lou was choir secretary when a senior; served on the senior play stage crew. She collects tally cards and poems during time away from Dodge's. In Old Shantytown, Vaughn Monroe, and Laraine Day she loves. Other favorites are: scalloped corn, Helmut Dantine, and American History. This light-haired slender beauty chums with Donna Lake and Barbara Duckham.

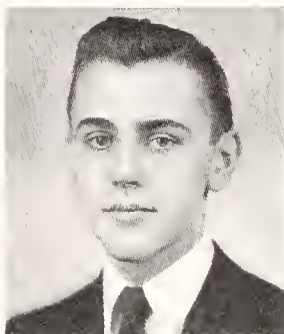

HOWARD, EVELYN

Music is Evelyn's favorite subject and she warbled with the choir 2 years. Harry James' version of Atchesan, Tapeka, and Santa Fe is number one on her hit parade. She works at Hemmingsen's and plans to continue there. Betty Hutton, chili, and motorcycling head her preferred list. Norma Lanning and Norma Swinhart share her idle hours.

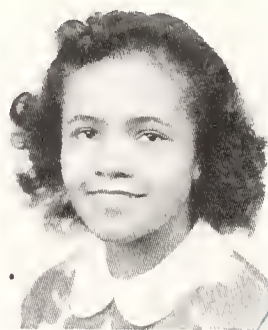

HOLT, ALMA M.

Alma, the petite, was in G.A.A. 2 years. She dances and sews her time away. She hopes to go to Beauty College. Betty Romine and Carolyn Ogden are her best pals. Blonde-haired, Alma thinks that Guy Lombardo and Hal McIntyre are the top band leaders. Sentimental Reasans warms her heart. Ingrid Bergman and James Stuart are favorites, too.

HEIDENREICH, JOHN WIRTH

Wirthless was president of his freshman class; managed the basketball team his junior year; and played a smooth Brian in the junior play. John joined Biology Club; was president of Latin Club his junior year and a loyal member of the Historical Society. John's best talent is playing the accordion. Handsome John is a Garden Theatre attendee; plans college.

HAWKS, ALICE GERALDINE

Gerry sang in choir 3 years (pianist junior year); Spanish Club; Historical Society 3; played an extra in the senior play. She loves driving to Battle Creek; could be because her boy friend's there. Gerry treasures her Christmas present from him. She is a shorthand enthusiast, and plans college, followed by work or marriage.

Wanda
Hughes

HUGHES,
WANDA MARILYN

Wanda wasn't a joiner. She collects photographs and reads books to pass the time; plans to be a secretary. Office practice experience came at the High School where she grew to idealize Mrs. Hecht. The Navy Pier at Chicago she found engrossing. Her class ring is precious to her. Blushing she can't help, she says.

JONES,
RICHARD WILLIAM

Dick came from Homer his junior year. He has 4 years of band and 2 of Latio Club. Playing and collecting records are Dick's favorite pastimes. Dick plans to go to college upon graduation. Indianapolis' Speedway is the most interesting place Dick has visited. Chemistry is his favorite subject. Dick hangs out at Stout's.

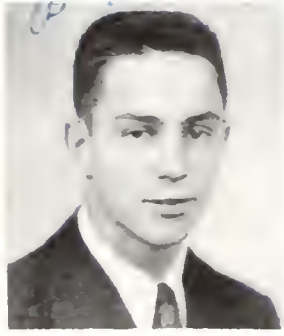

JONES, RUTH I.

Jonsey, quiet but efficient, sang in choir; helped Mrs. Hecht in the main office. This penny collector plans to enter business college. Brown-eyed Ruth pals with Wanda Hughes and Shirley Samson. Sammy Kaye plus Till The End of Time compose a fragrant brew for her taste. She likes government and shorthand, but hates mathematics.

JOSHICK, ALICE JEAN

Blond and blushing Tops pals with Eldonall Willis and Virginia Groth when she isn't listening to The Old Lamplighter. She hates to see couples holding hands in the halls. She guards her locket well. She likes ice cream and mathematics in which she excels. Alice J.'s timidity kept her from joining and from trying out; too bad.

KATZ, BLAINE KENNETH

Blaine played fast football 3 years, baseball 2; won the mile in track junior year. He warbled in choir 2, and joined the Historical Society. He played the clown. Daddy Toto, in the senior play and worked on the DIAL staff. His best talent is singing; his best girl is Marieia. Handsome Blaine hopes to go to college.

Don't see any tall

KATZ, RUTH LENORA

Blondie's speaking eyes added the glamorous touch to the junior play. She served in G. A. A. and choir her senior year. Ruth works at Hitchens' Drug Store. Her favorite pastime is dancing; ideal person, Harvey Deigert. She dotes on eating chop suey while Woody Herman plays Stars Fell On Alabama. Ruth has that Woodbury "skin you love to touch".

KEITHAN, JANE ANN

Jaocie played genteel Mrs. Beverly in senior play; likes to ride horses; plans to be a secretary. Paradox on Janie; G. Church is her ideal yet she plans spinsterhood!?! Starry-eyed Jaocy knows she shouldn't be fickle; but when it's Harry James, Jack London, or Rhapsody in Blue, the world's O. K. Oil paintings are her favorites, too.

KIPP, BOB

Bob played baseball 1 year; was in Historical Society 3. His hobby is hunting; he plans to work; or to join the Navy. He kills time at Green's; pals with Bob Herman, Dave Waide, and John Gallagher. He's proud as punch of his hair cut. He liked Gym; hated English. Listens to Spike Jones, and reads Jack London.

KING, VERNA JOYCE

Eve played in the string ensemble, but preferred orchestra. Her forte is piano-playing; her pal, Bobbie Tech. A bracelet, could be from Herb, is her choice treasure. Till the End of Time, with Dick Haymes or Spike Jones, is irresistible to good-natured Joyce. She never misses Maureen Daly's page in the Journal.

LANNING, NORMA JEA

G. A. A. held Norma's interest 2 years and Historical Society 1 year. Evelyn Howard, Barbara Beadle, and Jennie Petroff are her pals. Blue-eyed Butch slumbers to the tune of It's All Over Now. Jeanie Crain is her ideal. She works at Hemmingsen's; likes swimming and scalloped potatoes. Future plans: a beauty operator, with style!

LAKE, DONNA ELIZABETH

Singing talent led shy but ambitious Donna to choir 3 years. She joined G. A. A. and Historical Society. She was an extra in the junior play. Liz can't resist movies, especially one with Tom Drake playing a lead. Donna hangs out at Hemmingsen's and "shadows" with Mary Lou Harrington. She is employed at Dodge's. June Allyson is her ideal.

LEATHERMAN, RAYMOND G.

Ray is employed at the Garden Cafe. Possibly a weakness for eating was an influence. Spike Jones' novelty noise heads his hit parade. Chicago is the most interesting place he's visited. His most embarrassing moment at school was that zero hour: receiving his report card. Mr. Gray is Ray's ideal.

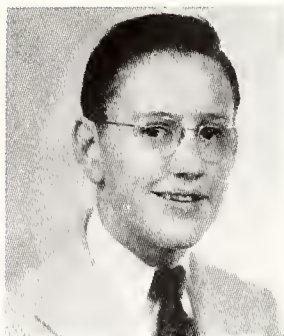

LEWIS, ELEANOR E.

Happy was in Latin Club 2 years, Usher Club 1, Biology Club 1, G. A. A. 4, Spanish Club 2, Historical Society 3, and in the junior play. Eleanor pals with Lois Wilson, Anita Clute, and Ruth Smith. Her big brown eyes look lovingly at her bracelet from Bill. She's cautious about her birthdate, the 13th.

LOFF, CARLEEN JEANETTE

Ambitious Bugs carried a full schedule every year: secretary of her junior class, Usher 2, Latin Club 2, G. A. A. 3, Spanish Club 2, Historical Society 3, and Associate Editor of the school paper. She played "mama" in the junior play, and spread grease paint for the senior play. Albion College will enroll rosy-cheeked Bugs next fall.

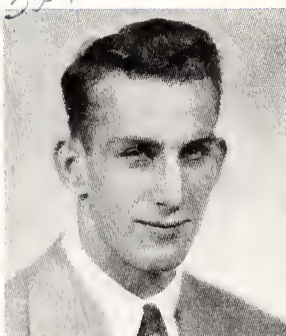

MALLORY, THERON ARTHUR

Short and sunny Thorn was a member of Historical Society and Spanish Club. He played trumpet in band and orchestra, and in R. V.'s hand. He can't remember at times, but recalls that he likes Randy Brooks and Racing With The Moon. He works at Western Union; hopes to attend Oberlin. Haunts Peck's with B. Camp and B. Walbeck.

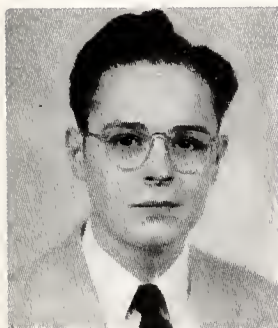

MEAD, MARCIA GAYL

Deep-brown-eyed Marcia came to M. H. S. her junior year. Marsha sang in choir, joined G. A. A. 2 years, and performed in the senior play. Her pet peeve is being taken for granted; superstition, black cats. Willowy Marcia's ideal person is her mother; her best boy-friend, Blaine Katz; her pals, Liz Collins and Pep Flynn.

MORRIS, ROBERT G.

This blue-eyed, broad-shouldered boy played football and baseball all 4 years; basketball 3, track 2. Morris played the cop in the junior play; confesses his weakness is bragging. He works at Kellogg's and loafs at Sheila's. Way-locked Bob pals with Grace, Schneider, and English. Plans to become a settled married man.

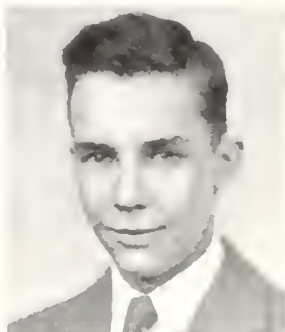

MURRAY, STERLING G.

Glamorous-haired Ster joined Latin Clubs and Historical Society. He was one of the junior play make-up crew, and senior play stage crew. Rudy Vogelreuter pals with him at Peck's. Since ushering at the Bogar theater, he has become Joan Fontaine's admirer. Chopin's Polonaise is a top favorite; English was his best-liked subject.

PATTERSON, BILL

Capt. Bill played football 4 years. All-T.V. 1946; on track team 1. Biology Club was an activity, too. Bill joined Historical Society 3 years. A dog is his prized possession; hunting, his talent. Brawns B doesn't like stuck-up girls; was most embarrassed when a G. A. A. initiate proposed to him. His plans are "slaving".

PARK, ROBERT WILLIAM

Good-looking Bob played French horn in the band 2 years; member of Latin Club 2 years (Aedile, junior year); Historical Society; debate 2; DIAL staff sports reporter; and junior play lead. He likes chemistry and physics; plans to be a chemical engineer. He prizes his red sweater and his girl, Alice. The army took Bob during his senior year.

PAYNE, BRUCE EDWARD

Friendly Franky kept busy in F. F. A. 3 years; Historical Society 3, and stage crew 4. He disapproves of girls' and boys' smoking. The Book Shop is his hang out, and there you could always find him with pals Meredith Wright and Doug Drumm. Busw Bruce's prized "keepsakes" are Vivian and a bookcase; his ideal person is Mr. Cuber.

OLMSTEAD, LORNA REE

Tireless Lorna cheer-led 4 years, G. A. A. 4 (vice-president junior year), Historical Society 3, Usher Club 3 (head usher, senior), vice-president of senior and sophomore classes, carried a band flag; vice-consul of Latin Club; on Student Council 2 years, in junior play; assistant editor of this book. Bill Grace is her weakness, but she loves being weak.

PEMBERTON, BARBARA JANE

Hazel-eyed Pem was secretary of Library Club as a Freshman, president as a sophomore. Barb G. A. A.-ed 4 years and Historical Society-ed 3. She pals with Dode Derhammer and Helen Armbrust; toils at Hitchens' Drug; collects snapshots. Her mother is her ideal person. She listens soulfully to Harry James play Star Dust; loves geometry; hates chemistry.

PETROFF, CHRIS JOHN

Football and choir led ex-G. I. Junior's activity list with 4 year membership in each. He played with the band as a Freshman and crashed the junior play cast. When he isn't driving or singing or playing billiards, he's at the Dugout with Bob Kipker and Bill Drumm. Jaunty Juny was on interesting New Caledonia, in service.

PETROFF, JENNIE JEAN

Pretty Jennie joined Latin Clubs, Biology Club, G. A. A. Historical Society; as sophomore secretary of Library Club, was on Student Council junior year, and president of Student Union senior year. She "Won't Be Satisfied" unless Sammy Kaye leads the band. Canada holds memories. She likes to create hair styles; plans to make them her career.

Love of Luck Carolyn

OGDEN, CAROLYN JEAN

With personality plus, Oggy accompanied the choir 2 years, violin in orchestra 1, Latin Clubbed 1, Biology 1, and Historical Society 3. She did make-up for the junior play; was a southern dowager in the senior play. Her ideal person is her mother; her great weakness, apple pie. She pals with Pat Berner and Alma Holt.

OATLEY, BARBARA JEAN

Barbara did library work her Freshman year. She wears an engagement ring from Dick Gladstone. Brown-eyed Barbara detests noisy gals. She pals with Margaret Midlam and Mary J. Baker. Likable Barb works at the Marshall Pastry Shop. Together is her favorite ditty; mathematics, her pet subject; eating, her acknowledged weakness.

Remember all those stories in typing Barbara

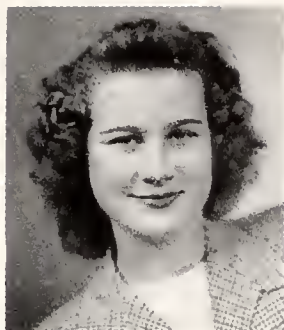

"Chino"

J.P.

PLUNKETT, GLORIA JOYCE

She sang soprano in choir 2 years, was in Latin Club 1 (senior year), and gave a southern accent to the maid in the junior play. Midget plans a career as an air line hostess. She visited Alabama and now that state has grown to be a weakness. Feather-weight Joyce hangs out at Skateland with Betty Willbur and Luella Wells.

QUICK, HELEN LOU

Quickie, with the blonde hair, light blue eyes, and world-shaking giggle, was in everything: Latin Club 2 years, G. A. A. 2, Spanish Club 2, Historical Society 3. She was a loyal DIAL staff reporter, and worked hard on the senior play stage crew. Florida is "that Utopian place" to Quickie. She plans college for 4 years to come.

RANGER, LOUISE ARLENE

Louise carried a flag for the band her senior year and warbled in choir 2 years. "Skating" Louise plans to be a telephone operator. Stinky knows her weakness is chewing gum, but it helps keep the thread in knots when she's sewing. Brown-eyed Louise favored art; couldn't stand English. Harry James and Star Dust make her ideal situation.

RAPP, BILL WINFIELD

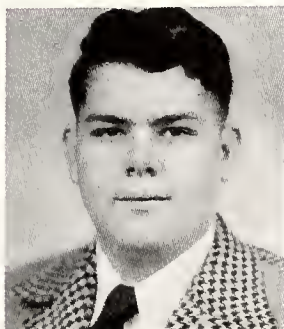

Slender Bestal played football (varsity 3) and basketball 4 (varsity 1). His most prized possession is his silver football, and his pet peeve is girls who wear letter sweaters they don't earn. He loafes at Peck's. He says his known weakness is girls (they like him, too); favorite duty is gym assistant; hates chemistry.

REED, CLYDE JAMES

Sports dominated Capt. Clyde's high school days by: football, basketball, and baseball 4 years. He even plans baseball for his career. Skin prefers to hunt and fish and spend leisure hours at Waite's with Patterson, Burns, and Ward, playing cards. He works at Steve's, eating all the profits. Betty Grable and hillbilly music are his favorites.

"Chuck"

ROYER, CHARLES EDWARD

Biology and Spanish Clubs were boosted by Chuck's moral support when he was a sophomore. He can't stand: Cupid's conduct in M. H. S. halls, nor government, nor physics. Chuck's hobbies are bowling and swimming, and his favorite pastimes reading and movies. His favorite star is Rita Hayworth; songs, Surrender and Star Dust; hand leader, Harry James.

ROMINE, BETTY C.

Music was auburn-haired Betty's only outside activity. She played in string ensemble and orchestra as a Freshman. Dancing to Vaughn Monroe's You Keep Coming Back Like A Song is her hobby. Bet knows that sudden tears are her weakness. She works at Hemmingsen's; hangs out there with Polly Hicks. Betty plans working; later college.

RICKABAUGH, NANCY LEE

Nan sang in choir 2 years, and prizes her piano. Nancy's pet peeve is "a certain person's driving". Her pals are too numerous to list; her superstition is "Table Up". Nan's ideal is her sister, Dixie. She likes toasted peanut-butter sandwiches, Gregory Peck, English, A Little Bit of Heaven and Wayne King, but chemistry was a bother.

SCHERER, ROBERT DUANE

Bob plans, upon graduating, to go to work and to travel. His hobbies are skiing and skating. Ray Leatherman and Bill Drum are Bob's best pals. The Garden Cafe has taken up Bob's spare time this year. Cards and checkers are Bob's favorite pastimes. His favorite movie star and song are Lou Costello and Ole Butter-milk Sky.

SHEW, TOM

Obtained his diploma via
S. Government exams.

Remember our 6th grade friends!

SHEBEL, ALICE MARIE

Modest Mitzie was secretary-treasurer of the sophomore class; vice-president of the junior class. She joined Latin Clubs, Usher Club, G. A. A., Historical Society, and Student Council. She debated her senior year; was on the junior play stage crew; played a pretty circus girl in the senior play. The bi-weekly DIAL art work kept her busy.

SELLORS, SHEILA

Serene Sheila was an usher 3 years, partook of Latin Club activities 1, G. A. A. 4, and Historical Society 3. She was photo editor of the year book, and an extra in the junior play. Her hobby is boys, she says, and she intends to get married after school, even though her known weakness is shyness toward boys. Pal, Lorna Olmstead.

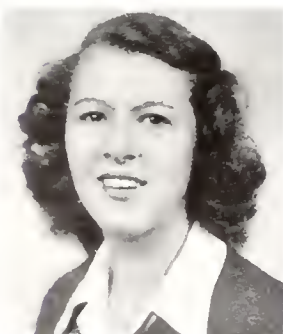

SEEDORFF,
HELEN LOUISE

Stub belonged to Historical Society 3 years; worked in Mr. Rose's office junior and senior years. She enjoyed Home Ec., but hated getting up in the morning. Because of Jimmy's influence, she passes time sewing or cooking. A bracelet (Mr. Flanders') and class ring she treasures. Blue-eyed Helen found a trip to Greenfield Village memorable.

SCHÄFER, CARLON

Biology Club, F. F. A., and Historical Society proved lengthy Carlon a joiner. He is a sports enthusiast, and prides himself on his straight shooting ability. He knows he should have studied harder, because his report card always embarrasses him. He enjoys trips into Northern Michigan and prizes his first mounted deer head. He wants to travel, just everywhere.

SMITH, BETTY LOU

Brown-eyed Smitty collects records, Temptation being her favorite. Procrastination is her frankly confessed weakness. She spends her spare time filling gas tanks at the Cities Service Station. Her favorite pastime is reading books or eating bananas. Betty prizes her friendship ring. She hopes to own a car in the near future.

SMITH, RUTH M.

Choir was a major high school activity of reticent, music-loving Ruthie 4 years. Skating, tennis, and a stuffed horse are hobbies. Ruth works at Dodge's Dime Emporium; plans college. Brown-haired, blue-eyed Ruth liked history; chemistry was pure drudgery. Chocolate pudding is almost as irresistible as tall, dark, and handsome Bob King.

SMITH, SIDNEY D., JR.

Self-sufficient Sid wasn't a joiner. He spends his time reading E. S. Gardiner mysteries. Sid didn't care about English, but chemistry's mysteries intrigued him. Brown-eyed Sidney spends time at home Doing What Comes Naturally with his Dad. He never misses an Alan Ladd movie. Till now, he shows no interest in the feminine attractions.

Best wishes Dick Doris "47"

STICK, DORIS LUCILE

Doris plans to be a nurse or a secretary. What about your treasured Chuck? She collects picture post cards; enjoys dances. Tommy Dorsey and The Old Lamplighter make her ideal dancing situation. Toasted cheese sandwiches are her weakness. She was so-o-o embarrassed when caught singing in class. Doris came to Marshall a senior, from Battle Creek.

SUNDAY, PATRICIA SHIRLEY

Composed Pat joined Latin Club 1, Historical Society, and G. A. A. 3 years. She spends her spare time reading Faith Baldwin, or making a cook book. Pat enjoyed most a trip to New York City; she plans to continue work at Bell Telephone or to go to California. She knows she should speak to people, but just doesn't.

TECH, BARBARA JEAN

Bobbie played a clarinet with the band 4 years and "swept up dirt" as a DIAL reporter. Her favorite pastime is reading Zane Gray books. Blue-eyed Barbara takes a circuitous route around black cats. Benny Goodman's music attracts her special fancy. She pals with Joyce King; Bobbie will make a good secretary.

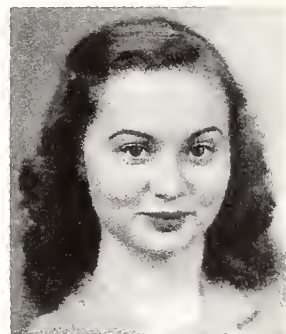

TENNEY, RUTH JANICE

Jovial Janice joined Latin Clubs 1 and 11, Usher Club 2 years; G. A. A. 4 years; Historical Society; was DIAL staff exchange editor; made a hit in the junior play. She was sophomore class representative, G.A.A., business manager (junior). Alyce Van Elst, Patty Berner, and Helen Armbrust are Janice's best pals. Her pet peeve is sarcastic people.

THOMPSON, GOLDIE ILEAN

President of the choir her sophomore year; played clarinet in band her junior and senior years. Her hobby is reading Zane Gray books. Roller skating with Dorothy Black and Gerry Hawks is her favorite pastime. Her engagement ring and housewifely plans may be an influence. Slender Goldie knows she is shy, but—what to do?

TINGAY, ELEANOR J.

Demure Ting pals with Pat Sunday and Marian Bort. Her future will see her either a typist or a housewife. Ting swoons to Night and Day or to almost any Harry James number. She was Mr. Rose's capable and popular office girl 2 years; she joined only the Historical Society.

VANCE, JOHN ATHEARN

Quiet John came to Marshall, a Junior, from Olivet. He plans to continue studying in college. Favorite subject, mechanical drawing; but he can't face English and literature. Black-haired, brown-eyed John enjoys listening to the radio and eating banana cream pie. Unlike most people, he prizes his known weakness—girl friend, that is.

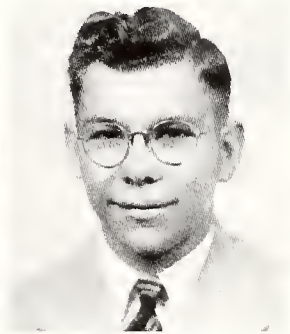

TRUPIANO, EMILY ANN

Emmy of the dusky curls was in choir (senior year); major-domo twirling majorette 4 years; Latin Club 2; Usher Club 2; Biology Club 1; G.A.A. 4; Historical Society 3; Library Club 1. Her most prized possession is Harold's engagement ring. Emily pals with Doris De Ruiter, Connie Dunham, and Dolas Derhammer.

TROEDSON, ELLEN SIGRID

Pretty, blond, blue-eyed Ellen was initiated into G. A. A. as a freshman and stayed 4 years. She belonged to Latin Clubs and Historical Society. She works at Hemmingsen's; hangs out there with Barbara Beadle. Vaughn Monroe's For Sentimental Reasons is No. 1. Ellen collected stamps and napkins; plans beauty school.

TOBALSKE, JOHN ANDREW

Johnny managed football fellows junior and senior years, won the half mile track event junior year, played in band (freshman), Biology Club (sophomore), Historical Society 3 years, and won a part for himself and his pet coon in the senior play. John is a sportsman and spends his Five Minutes More on wild life projects.

Good Luck in years to come.
Rudy

VOGELREUTER, RUDY

Quipster Rudy played football 3 years, and a sax in band 1. He was Assembly Committee chairman both his years in Student Council. He belonged to Club de Espanol 2 years, Historical Society 2. Sleepy was on the DIAL staff. He enacted Dutch in the junior play. His dance band is famous. Rugged Rudy loves his letter sweater.

VESTROM, JULIA

Smiling Julia was a member of Historical Society 3 years and warbled in choir 1 year. Toots hates to get up in the morning. Homeliving is her favorite subject; Dwight Joshick might be her incentive. Julie spends leisure time dancing to the tune of Harry James' For Sentimental Reasons. Secretarial plans loom on a bright horizon.

VAN DEN BERG,
MARJORIE FRANCES

Flaxen-haired, blue-eyed Marge avoided "joining up." Loved skating and playing cards. Her pet peeve is the expression — "Oh, really. — No; Oh, Riley." Sips cokes at Peck's with Doris Stick and Mable Gordner. Her ideal person is her boy friend. Marge listens to Glenn Miller playing The Best Man while she eats her favorite potatoes.

VAN ELST,
ALICE LORRAINE

Activity - plus! That's dusky Alice: G. A. A. 3 years (secretary junior year), Spanish Club 2, Historical Society 3, Library Club 1. She was assistant director of the junior play and a circus girl in The Little Clown. Worked a regular beat for the DIAL; likes English best; will attend Albion College; is Albion lucky! (She's already an Albion booster.)

VAN WYKEN,
DORIS ARLENE

Doddie made all the clubs. Latin 2, Biology 1, G. A. A. 2 and History 2, Society 3. She was an extra in the junior play. Nursing is Doris' goal; she collects cat and pepper shakers. She hates doing dishes, but doesn't hate her compact from Johnny. Black-haired Doddie pals with the Best Quick Loff clique.

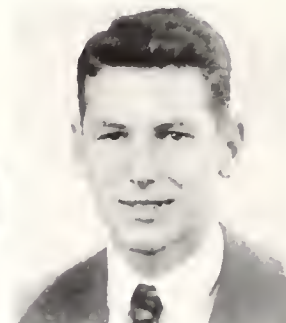

VINCENT, BERNICE

Brown-eyed Bernie pursued points for G. A. A. 4 years. She was in Latin Clubs, Fisher Club, Biology Club, and Historical Society. When she isn't working at Hemmingsen's, she hangs out there with Ellen Troedson and Bugs Beadle. She likes to fool around even though she knows she shouldn't. Guy Lombardo and Star Dust top her favorites.

WAID, DAVID EDWIN

Muscular David spends his extra time reading, and playing football; his favorite author is Jane Gray. He and George Lord hang out in Homer. While not in school, he worked at the Livingston Repair Co. Doesn't like school in general, but English was an especial trial. The State Capitol interested him a lot. Future? Work!

WALBECK,
WILLIAM MILLER

Lofty brown-eyed Crash was editor (with a sense of humor) of the DIAL bi-weekly. This president of the Student Council played basketball and football 2 years; band 3; orchestra 1; Spanish 2; Historical Society 3. He was a perfect colonel in the senior play. He toots the trombone in Rudy's band; succumbs to Iris Lake's charm.

WARNER, JAMES

Jim is with Laverne Hamaker when he isn't spending his time with this or that girl. Eva Gardiner is O. K., but Eleanor Tingay is his ideal. When he isn't working at Boyd's pattern shop, he loafs at Green's Bowling Alley. Jim was never so embarrassed as when Mr. Cunningham caught him in his closet. He's off to California, girls!

WEAVER, JANET LONGNECKER

G. A. A. was the activity attractive to this lively married senior. Janet likes movies featuring Gregory Peck or Greer Garson. Wayne King's version of You Keep Coming Back Like A Song isn't bad either. Hanging slips gripe her. Blonde-haired Janet plans to keep house for her ideal person, Raymond Weaver. She will serve lots of escalloped potatoes.

Luella

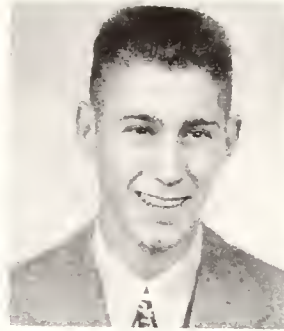

WELLS, LUELLA MAY

Blue-eyed, Bacall-voiced Terry sang as a freshman and junior, was in the Biology Club as a sophomore, paid G. A. A. dues her junior and senior years, carried the "Stars and Stripes" with the band as a senior, and portrayed out-spoken Minnie in the senior play. Luella spends spare moments at Skateland with Betty Willbur.

WILLBUR, BETTY JEAN

Peppy Betty did a superb job playing naughty Elsie in the junior play. She was a member of G. A. A. 4 years. Her future plans include working; later marrying. Iodine thrills to Harry James' music. The huge caves in Kentucky took her breath away. Blondie hates to see girls smoke. Roller skating at Skateland is her passion.

WILSON, HERBERT E.

Slim and straight Ike prompted the juniors in their play; was Jim, the circus owner, in the senior play. Herby presided over the Historical Society 2 years. Active Herb had basketball 2, football 4, Latin Club 1, Biology Club 1; was chief printer of the bi-weekly DIAL. Herb admires Ellery Queen, and would like a fling at writing.

WILSON, LOIS JEAN

Eleanor Lewis palled with Shortie in making G.A.A. points. Lois joined Biology Club, Spanish Club, Historical Society, and was freshman vice-president of Library Club; was one of the girlish gang in the junior play. Lois works at Peck's; avoids all ladders. Giggling is her talent and pastime, plus flirting and talking. Plans: private secretary de luxe.

WYGANT, BEVERLY JOANNE

Bev was in Biology Club 1 year, Historical Society 3, and Library Club 1; she office-practiced faithfully, too. With her pals, Bev hangs out at Pine Creek. She cherishes her diamond, and can hardly wait till Ray comes home. She's wary of "13", but she'd be happy to hear For Sentimental Reasons by Harry James 13 times.

ALICE VAN ELST

Mary E. Winsor Award

This award of $100 plus an engraved certificate is the annual gift of Stowell C. Stebbins, in memory of his wife's mother, Mary E. Winsor.
